WESTPORT

Father Duggan said on Saturday that the attendance at the fair for the benefit of the Church of the Assumption had been simply phenomenal, and that all classes of people had shown themselves very generous. The fair will continue the three last days of this week and will close on Labor Day, one week from to-day. Next Thursday evening Mr. Thomas Mc-Quillan of Norwalk will give a moving picture show, and Martin Cheagh of the same city will sing. On Friday evening there will be singing by the Masters Remlin and singing and dancing by Miss Marie Remlin.
On Saturday Miss May Williams of South Norwalk will sing, also a lady from Bridgeport.

According to the peach growers of town the crop this year is much less than it was last, but the quality is good. Apple trees are bad all over suffering from the attacks of the scale. This is particularly true of the old trees. Young trees appear to be thriving.
Most of the recent exciting topics in town have gone with the passing of summer—the battle of the bath houses the closing of fruit stores on Sunday; the causes of malaria and the speeding of automobiles. Nothing serious has happened along these lines, and no lives have been lost. It is true a good deal of sewerage runs into the river above the bridge, and the tide washes it back and forth. There appears to be no help for this unless North Main street is moved to the river forced to stop at the bridge.
Meanwhile the Village Improvement society is doing good work, and the handsome concrete sidewalks now extend from the bridge to Compo street.
A drive way is being constructed for carriages from State street to the western side of the Congregational church. A handsome retaining wall of field stones has been erected along State street in front of the embankment which was removed to allow a side walk to be built past the grounds of the Congregational church.

One of the attractions of the lawn fete to be given on Wednesday and Thursday the 1st and 2nd of September, by the Village Improvement Society, is called the "humanoscope." It will be very like moving pictures with songs, only the film has been eliminated, and the figures that move are real human beings and not their shadows.

A few days ago the owner of an auto stopped in front of the Westport hotel to have a tire repaired. There was a bag with considerable money left on the back seat. When the owner was ready to leave he found the bag had left before he did and there was no clue to the thief.

Mr. Walter Allen won in the last race given by the Compo Skiff Club.
There will be further excellent races on Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Orlando I. Allen are visiting Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Putney in Milford.

Mrs. Frederick Weed is visiting Mrs.
Charlotte Budd.

Mr. C. B. Dolge is expected home from Maine this week.

Dr. John John McCudde is the new manager of the local baseball club.

Mr. Homer S. Beers is home from Mexico.

Both Judge and Mrs. D. B. Bradley and Town Clerk and Mrs. Hyatt have recently been entertaining friends from out of town.

Mr. Charles Eaton has left the beach and returned to New York.

A society of artists has been organized called the "Silvermine Group," named from the studio of Solon H.
Borglum in Silvermine, Conn. Quite a number of New York artists have been passing the summer in town, besides those who reside here the year around. An exhibition of the work of the members opened on Saturday and will continue on the 4th, 5th and 6th of September. Silvermine is a little place between Norwalk and Canaan.

Among the members of the club are H. Webster, the sculptor of this place who is making the Minute Man, and the following gentlemen and ladies: Solon H. Borglum, D. P. Brinley, Howard W. Cornwell, H. H. H. H. brandt, Addington T. Miller, G. R.
Thompson, Austin Lord and E. M.
Adhe.

C. F. Taylor is home from various vacation trips.

A married man named William Hord, a hatter of Bethel, has been convicted by a small court on Compo beach with a girl but 16 years of age, named Marjorie Hubbell, who was his sister in law. The constable of the police returned to the girl, who returned home but Hord escaped. The Hubbell family is still hunting for the man who induced the girl to go to the beach.

Mr. George W. Washburn, a painter, recently fell a distance of 34 feet from the roof of a coal shed in East Norwalk. He was taken to his home in Saugatuck, but was not seriously injured.

It is said that thus far this season some 120 bathing suits have been stolen from Compo beach.

Thomas Mullins has been fined $10 and costs by Justice Purdy for intoxication and resisting an officer.

On Labor Day the home baseball team will play a game at Fairfield with the Fairfield team in the morning, and in town at 3:15 in the afternoon.

Last evening at the Methodist church Mrs. J. M. S. Van Blunk gave an address upon her experiences in Africa. Mr. John Duggan, of New Haven, baritone, sang.

Rev. H. W. Maguire, of Bayonne, N. J., preached yesterday for Rev. K.
Knickerbocker, Jr., who is too ill to take charge of services just yet.

"The Story of the Pink Rose" was given last evening at the Saugatuck Methodist church. The Ladies Aid Society of this church will serve a dinner in the hall next Thursday from 12 until 3 o'clock.

Rev. John C. Whiting of New York preached in the Congregational church yesterday.

Mr. Kenneth MacKenzie, Sr., celebrated his 80th birthday a week ago.
Many of his grandchildren were present.

The Misses Wynne of Brooklyn are in town until the middle of September, guests of Mrs. S. M. Ahern.

Postmaster Harris is taking a 10 days' vacation.

Congregational church yesterday both morning and evening.
The case of Herbert Pool, charged with taking $20 from a house where he was stopping, came up on Saturday, but was continued until to-day.
The fund for the purchase of books for the library, was increased some $125 by the garden party held on Thursday. During the evening the local orchestra furnished music.

Since the grading of the lawns in front of the Sterling and Coe estates on Main street, down to the stone curb line has been completed most people are loud in praise of the appearance of the street. It is greatly improved, and the lawns will now be preserved.

Rev. George Farrar delivered two sermons yesterday at the Methodist church—in the morning on "The Will and Man's Destiny," and in the evening on "Growth; its Place in Christianity."

Dr. Packard conducted the services at the Bethany Mission yesterday afternoon.

On the 8th of September the Pomona grange of Fairfield county will be held at Monroe. Several local people plan to attend.

Mr. Johnson and family are back from a trip to Europe and are at their home on Nichols avenue.

On the 18th of next month Mr. Nathan Middlebrooks will again entertain the 2nd Conn. Battery, much as he did last year when he decorated his residence, and spread bountiful tables in the barn, which was transferred into a pretty dining room. The tables will be decorated with autumn flowers and fruits and in the house there will be music and speeches.

Messrs. D. M. Read & Co., furnish the flags and bunting for the event.

The members of the Footstuck club had a very enjoyable dance on Saturday evening. The weather was ideal.

Recent visitors in town and those who have returned from vacations include Mrs. Thos. Dempsey who is visiting Mr. John McDonald; Mr.
Donovan; Miss Mabel Merrick, back from an outing; Mr. William Curtis; Miss Edith Bacon from a trolley trip to Mass.; Mrs. Benjamin and Annie Fish; Miss Isabelle McKean; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilson and Judge Nichols, of Shelton and Postmaster Holmes visiting Mr. William B. Tuttle.

Rev. J. W. Eggleston made a brief visit to town a few days ago.

Mrs. George Bowe has been visiting in Nichols.

It is said that while in the Berkshires Misses E. M. Burrill and Cornellus, spent some time at Mt.
Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Judson have gone away on a trolley trip, which will include Woodbury and Middlebury.

There is to be a new business firm of carpenters—Vanderbeck & Stanton.
Mr. J. Albert Smith of Boston is visiting at Columbus farm.

Mr. Franklin Peck is home from an auto trip to Albany.

Assa L. Packard is now Captain of the Okenuck Tribe of Red Men.
It is said some 200 hundred invitations have been issued for the meeting of Lily Camp of W. O. W.'s next Thursday evening.

The library has placed in the reading room the Buyer's Reference Book for August, 1909. It is known as the Thomas Register of American Manufacturers and contains 1,600 pages, 200,000 names and 45,000 articles. It is regarded as a standard work as it is used by the Government at Washington.

Father O'Connor intends visiting the fair at Westport for the benefit of the Church of the Assumption, some day this week, probably on Friday.

BEACH WINS BY 40

In the annual election of the borough of Woodmont which was held last Saturday afternoon, a very large vote for that borough was cast, there being 124 in all of which it developed 50 were voted by women, who thus played an important part in the election. In the fight for warden, Andrew Y. Beach, a candidate for the head office on the Woodmont association ticket, was elected over the citizen candidate, Frederick S. Black-all, by a vote of 32 to 42. It was shown that the prediction regarding the antipathy of the voters of St. Agnes' parish to Warden Beach was not without foundation.

The following is a summary of the voting: Andrew Y. Beach, 32; Frederick S. Blackall, 42; for warden: Burgesse, 13; P. Bennett, 134; James J.
Beebe, 24; John D. Cunningham, 124; Sharon D. Beach, 86; Waldo H. Warner, 63; Joseph H. Smith, 61; J. W.
Merwin, 36; the first five being therefore elected. Carl D. Schleicht got 121 votes for clerk, Charles M. Smith 120 for treasurer. Benjamin H. Ryder defeated William I. Hall for sheriff, getting 77 votes to Hall's 47. Walter Randall and Charles L. Little were elected auditors, each getting 124 votes.

The annual meeting of the borough followed immediately after the counting of the vote and swearing in of the newly elected officials. The appropriations recommended by the last council of burgesses were adopted, excepting the fire and sundry items, which were raised. A three mill borough tax was voted unanimously.

Stock Companies.
The proper way to do if you are going to incorporate is to have stock certificates properly printed and in compliance with the laws of the State in which you organize. Another essential is of course the seal of the stock company in which you will be interested. One of the requirements also is a ledger in which you keep the names of the owner and the numbers of shares and other details. These can all be found in variety at a reasonable price at Jackson's Book Shop, 186-188 Main street, where you will find the Civil Officer, Statutes, Connecticut Reports and other law books not only for Connecticut but for other States.
